

tion that "we act in harmony and endeavor to promote unity among our members." We have our individual views upon this subject as Bro. True has his. He has presented his argument and we have presented ours. Let both sides be considered with all candor, and without bias. However the question shall be decided we shall gracefully acquiesce. The time may not have come for the step we have advocated. We believe it will come in the near future, and that the result will justify the measure. Whatever we do let us remember the motto: "In things essential unity; in all things charity."

Bro. Edwin Snyder sends us the following resolution which he succeeded in having adopted by the board of directors of the Kansas State Exchange at their recent meeting at Emporia, with the suggestion: "I thought maybe you would want it for your paper."

Thanks, Bro. Snyder, this was a happy thought. We want all the Alliance news we can get. We are not publishing a paper for the exclusive advocacy of our individual opinions; and if any person has succeeded in making himself believe this to be the case it is time he were undeceived. We have opinions upon most subjects, and we have our way of expressing them freely and without reservation or equivocation; but we do not expect all men to coincide with us at all times and we do not desire to deprive those who honestly differ with us, of the same rights and privileges which we ever claim for ourselves. We set forth in our Salutatory the principle upon which our paper would be conducted as follows:

"While we shall fearlessly advocate such principles and measures as we may deem wise and expedient, we shall always be willing to accord to those who may differ with us a fair hearing. 'Any theory, hypothesis, philosophy, sect, creed or institution, that fears investigation, openly manifests its own error.' Truth and right are not usually most prospered in the absence of all controversy."

In view of the above we hope Bro. Snyder will avail himself further of our columns. The Alliance may not yet be sufficiently educated "in the science of economical government in a strictly non-partisan spirit, to rise above their partisanship in politics but they are making progress, and we shall continue to hope for further development in this direction.

The following is Bro. Snyder's resolution.

Emporia, Kas., Oct. 2 1889.

Resolved by the Directors of the Kansas State Alliance Exchange Co. That we earnestly entreat our brethren of the Alliance to avoid all political action or discussion of partisan politics within the Alliance as we regard such action as valueless to us politically, a certain element of discord in our order, which would prove ruinous to the most promising organization of farmers the world has ever known.
